activities involving the transportation, supply, and sale of illicitly distilled (I.D.) liquor. His actions are in violation of the provisions contained under Section 7(B) read with Section 8(A) of the Andhra Pradesh Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 1997, and Section 7(B) read with Section 8(B) of the Andhra Pradesh Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 2020. He indulged in bootlegging activities in the manner prejudicial to the public health and public order.

2. AND WHEREAS, the Government have accorded approval of the said detention order under sub-section (3) Section 3 of the Act, vide Government Orders 3rd read above.

3. AND WHEREAS, under Section 10 of the Act, Government within three weeks from the date of detention of a person under the order shall place the case before the Advisory Board on Preventive Detentions and the Advisory Board shall submit its report to Government within seven weeks from the date of detention under Section 11(1) of the said Act. The above said case was placed before the Advisory Board constituted under Section 9 of the said Act, comprising of Chairman and two Members for its consideration vide Letter 5th read above. The case was reviewed by the Advisory Board on 11.09.2025 through video conference. After having heard the detenu and the Investigating Officer, and also upon perusing the grounds of detention and the connected records, the Advisory board has unanimously opined and reported that "there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenue".

4. AND WHEREAS, the Government after careful examination of the entire record, observed that Sri Vaditya Ramadasu S/o Vaditya Venkateswararao, aged 35 Years, R/o Nagireddigudem, Chintalapudi Mandal, Eluru District, Andhra Pradesh State, is found to be involved in as many as in Six (06) cases mentioned in the grounds of detention. All the instances mentioned clearly establish that he is habitual offender and his activities are habitual in nature and which are registered under various Sections. As such, the activities of the individual falls under and within the meaning of "Bootlegger" as defined under section 2(b) of Act 1 of 1986. The detaining authority having taken into account and consideration of indulgence of the detenu in the above said activities repeatedly at regular intervals and having satisfied that the penal laws have failed to curb his illegal activities, has passed the detention order against the detenu by invoking the provisions under the Act 1 of 1986, in order to prevent him from indulging further in such activities, which are prejudicial to maintenance of public order. The Advisory Board after review of the case, has unanimously opined that there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenu. As such, the detenu deserves the maximum period of detention, as provided under Section 13 of the Act.

5. Now, therefore, the Government after due consideration of the report of the Advisory Board and the material available on record, and in exercise of the powers conferred under sub-section (1) of Section 12 read with Section 13 of the said Act, the Order of Detention made by the Collector & District Magistrate, Eluru District, Eluru, in the Proceedings 1stread above, as approved in the G.O.3rdread above are hereby confirmed. The detention of Sri Vaditya Ramadasu S/o Vaditya Venkateswararao,
